

Contract type: Full-time
Contract term: Permanent

The Role:

The British School of Navarra is looking for a highly competent, committed, enthusiastic, and dynamic whole school PE Specialist Teacher to join our team beginning from the 28th of August, 2023.

The position presents an exciting opportunity, allowing the applicant to play an important role in the development of a growing international school.

We are committed to provide a high-quality learning experience in all ages under the direction of the Headteacher.

The candidates should:

- Hold a primary teaching qualification, or a relevant degree with PGCE qualification, or an equivalent degree and teaching qualification.
- Excellent interpersonal communication skills to work closely with students and parents.
- Seek and promote an outstanding performance for all students through a range of different sports, providing students with an opportunity to develop and improve their social and physical skills.
- Have a creative and enthusiastic approach both in and out of the classroom, ensuring classes and activities are well-organised, ensuring an effective use of resources.
- Work together with other teaching colleagues in medium and short-term planning, target setting and monitoring to ensure challenge and the best possible progress for every pupil.

As an International school specialising in the English National Curriculum to a diverse international student population, native-level speakers of English will be preferred. Mid-level roles of responsibility may be available for suitable candidates.
